

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AT CALLINGTON TOWN COUNCIL MEETINGS

Meetings of Callington Town Council are not public meetings but members of the public have a statutory right to attend meeting of the Council as observers.

They have no legal right to speak unless the Town Council Chairman authorises them to do so.

However, as part of its community engagement, Callington Town Council sets out a time for public participation near the beginning of the Full Council meeting when members of the public are invited to speak.

Members of the public should not be involved in the decision making of the Council. The Council should not make any instant decisions at the behest of members of the public on items that are not included in the agenda. As a matter of best practice, the public forum will be kept separate from the debate of the Councillors.

If matters raised are not on the agenda for the meeting these can be used to form part of the agenda for a future meeting at the discretion of the Council.

Members of the public are welcome to stay for the Council meeting after the public session as observers. Members of the public may be excluded by a resolution of the meeting for specific items which need to be discussed in confidence (eg. Staffing matters, tenders or contracts, or some legal issues).

RULES

- This session will be limited to a maximum time of 10 minutes
- The time for each member of the public to speak is limited to 3 minutes
